

TRAVEL INSURANCE CLAIMS POLICY

(Sample / illustrative document for prototype testing – not real policy wording)

Section 1: Trip Cancellation Claims

Required document: Boarding Pass or e-ticket confirmation showing the original booked itinerary.

Required document: Airline cancellation or delay confirmation letter, issued directly by the airline, clearly stating the reason for cancellation and the duration of delay.

Claims for trip cancellation must be filed within 30 days of the scheduled departure date.

Section 2: Medical Emergency During Travel

Required document: Medical Certificate issued by a registered physician or hospital, dated within 7 days of the incident, clearly stating the diagnosis and treatment provided.

Required document: Original itemized hospital or clinic bill showing the breakdown of charges.

Claims involving hospitalization abroad must include the treating facility's name, address, and physician's registration number.

Section 3: Baggage Loss or Delay

Required document: Property Irregularity Report (PIR) issued by the airline at the airport at the time of the incident.

Required document: Original baggage tags matching the reported flight. Compensation for baggage delay is only payable if the delay exceeds 12 hours from the scheduled arrival time.

Section 4: Trip Interruption

Required document: Proof of unused, prepaid travel arrangements (hotel confirmation, tour booking, etc.).

Required document: Written explanation of the reason for interruption, supported by relevant third-party documentation (medical, airline, or official government notice).

Section 5: Personal Liability and Legal Assistance

Required document: Police report, if the claim involves any third-party injury or property damage during the trip.

Required document: Any correspondence received from the affected third party or their legal representative.
